Excerpt from My Summer on the Farm When I found that I could leave the hot city and go to my cousin s on the farm I was very happy. Packing my little trunk with a few pretty muslin dresses, my sun hat and my canvas slippers, I found in a day s time I was ready for the journey. My mother came to the train with me, bought my ticket, and saw me htf. The train was filled with people going for their Summer outing, not one more happy than I. As we left the city I began to see so many beautiful sights, and at last reached the little town, where my cousin met me with a white pony and what she called a buckboard.
