Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. How do you make something feel finished? On New Year s Eve seventeen-year-old Amira texts the Irish ex-boyfriend she s been missing desperately since they broke up at the end of summer, when she returned to Canada. They agreed they wouldn t be friends, that it would never be enough. But that was then-back when Amira s separated parents had shipped her off to relatives in Dublin for the summer so they could test-drive the idea of getting back together on a long haul cruise. Back when Amira was torn away from a friend in need in Toronto only to fall in love with a Dublin screenwriting class and take a step closer to her dream career. And only to fall for cousin Zoey s bandmate, Darragh, the guy who is first her friend, then her enemy and later something much more complicated-the guy she can say anything to, the guy who makes every inch of her feel wide awake in a way she hadn t known was possible. The guy she confides in about the dead sister she has no living memories of but who has remained with Amira nonetheless. The guy she might never see again. Or is there, despite the distance, somehow still a chance for them? Chock-full of movie references and giddy love for Dublin, Ireland, Just Like You Said It Would Be is a frank exploration of the extraordinary highs and shattering lows of first love that will appeal to fans of Jennifer Echols, Tara Kelly, Sarra Manning, Trish Doller, and Kirsty Eagar.
