Excerpt from An Archeological Overview of Redwood National Park Specific purposes of this chapter are: (1) to identify points of anthropological interest in and near Redwood National Park and to provide data concerning their significance; (2) to sketch the ancient life-ways of the Indians in the vicinity of the park so as to provide the National Park Service with information useful in the preparation of interpretive exhibits and literature; (3) to document the salient cultural activities of aboriginal northwest California as a stimulus for the Park Service to encourage the perpetuation of native practices for the benefit of local Indian people and the edification of park visitors, and (4) to review a wide range of technical sources in the hope that this chapter will serve as a key resource for non-specialists who may wish to research ethnographic matters in more detail than can be provided here.
