

The Man Who Recreated Himself: 21st Century Prophet and Redeemer Thriller (Third Edition) (Paperback)

By Lazlo Ferran

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The newspaper headlines all asked the same question; Is James Brennan the new Messiah? Roy Lindermann s, MP for a ruling Liberal Party in crisis, is left a Top Secret folder by his dead friend Dustin Hislop. Investigating the folder s contents, he begins to unravel the story of James Brennan, writer, philosopher and 21st Century Prophet, who the terrified Government put on trial for Treason. Brennan has been under house arrest for years, his only communication with the outside world a soundless, live broadcast on TV every night from captivity. Now the transmissions have suddenly stopped. Fearing a conspiracy, Lindermann aims to find out if James is still alive. As his investigation deepens, Roy becomes ensnared in a hidden world of intelligence, counter-intelligence, murder and deceit, which goes right to the top of Government. This enthralling and thought-provoking thriller, set in the world of seedy London politics, has a subtle twist which will not fail to make even the most jaded of political thriller fans smile. Fans of The Shawshank Redemption or One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest...
