Beginning a magickal life and practice, is volume two of the Kingdom Magick series by Elijah Autumn. Volume one is titled Harnessing the power within you. It continues its concept that magick is neither good nor evil, but is the same power found in that of miracles. It teaches that within each us all, resides a truth and power that not only can change and empower ourselves, but that it can also change and empower the world. It centers around unconditional love and grace but also of power and boldness. Volume two begins to dive deeper into the practice of magick, as it begins to offer teaching on subjects such as the rules of magick engagement, love magick, crystals and stones, and even the cleansing and charging of our precious stones. Elijah Autumn gives some detail into a self esteem or attraction spell and walks you through the process step by step. Mr. Autumn in this second volume, also gives teaching into the elements, and to the meaning of the pentagram and pentacle. It also briefly describes the setting up of your sacred space...
