Play something for me! Every young drummer's nightmare! Now you don't have to worry; this book is for you! A collection of easy drumset solos for the developing drummer written in a variety of styles with correct style patterns and solos. This book gives the young drumset student fun, yet challenging lesson and performance material. The musical styles represented expose the young drummer to basic rock, swing, bossa nova, and samba patterns. This book can be used in conjunction with any standard drumset method book. Students and teachers will find these solos fun to play and suitable for auditions, recitals and solo contests. This book is published by Case Studio Productions and has been kid tested and teacher approved for the past 15 years!.
