Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 286 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Excerpt from Mural Painting A very complete history of the art from the very earliest times down to the present day. . . The illustrations are excellent. - Scotsman. The illustrations, which are particularly numerous, and, as a rule, well produced, afford additional illumination to a subject of much interest. Publishers Circular. A complete and comprehensive study of a fascinating handicraft at various stages of its history. The historic part is excellently treated, and practical hints are not lacking. Many and excellent illustrations. St. James Gazette. . . . Will appeal to a wider circle than the actual worker, for it gives an interesting glimpse of a certain phase of Italian life at the Renaissance. . . Well written, and admirably illustrated. Guardian. It is a highly valuable series. - School Government Chronicle. The work is a most complete one, and deals with the subject from every point of view; while the illustrations and workshop receipts add immensely to its value. - Irish Times. We have already referred to the wealth of historical matter of vast interest to those not only fond of the craft itself, but of the memory of the great masters in it which Mr. Jackson has got together in this small compass. The Builder. An admirable and exhaustive work. . . Stands unique as an authority upon the subject with which it deals. - The House. No more practical volume of the Designers and Craftsmans Handbooks than the unit contributed by Mr. F. H. Jackson. It may help to revive and inform a branch of art decoration which has always languished in this country, besides affording numerous designs from the best period, the idea of which can be extended,...
