

A Christmas House (Paperback)

By Mary Miller

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Christmas House is the perfect book for anyone who has ever: built a house, worried about getting old, been single, been married, experienced sibling rivalry, delivered a baby, or spent the holidays with their relatives! Born on Christmas Day, Abigail Addison was turning sixty this year. Even though she didn't look old, every now and then she felt old. So, when Fred her husband of thirty-five years invites the family down to spend Christmas together in the house he's been building on an island off the coast of Georgia, she decides to surprise him by selling their old home and embracing a life together at the beach. It's Abigail, however, who is surprised when she gets there to discover Fred's beautiful red brick house with white columns is somewhat lacking inside . lacking paint, lacking plaster, lacking walls! As each member of the family arrives they see a different house. Fred sees it for what it will be. Abigail sees it for the unfinished mess it is. Their three grown daughters, Margaret, Babs, and Lizbeth (eight...
