Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Something has bothered me all my life. I can accept that this universe, random as it seems, has a purpose. I look around me and see that we humans are the only ones on the earth. or anywhere else, who can reason and make choices that affect our lives. We are capable of great good, but we can wage war with each other when we disagree, such as Iraq, Viet-Nam, WWII, and WWI. Humans may not be so sophisticated after all. When all exploded in a Big Bang, into what did all that matter explode? If it exploded into nothing, then nothing is something. If that is true, what are the properties of nothing? I have come to believe that time is like a balloon, with boundaries and is ever expanding. I use logic for this and not science, although scientific proof would be better. Everything we know, all matter, and time had a beginning and will have an end. Humans are the only species capable of reflecting on time and come up with spirituality as a way to provide a look at all of reality. Why is that? Time is so integral to life, and spirituality is critical to our future. I hope that this book will spark some further examination from you. All reality is evolving. There is one reality, but it has three dimensions, or universes. These three universes are qualitatively and quantitatively different, so we must use different methods of measurement to examine each one properly. All of this leads up to a way to look at one reality using science, philosophy and religion as lenses that are not at cross purposes, but actual enhance each other. I...
